“ Sorry for your loss. Bro. Donald was a good man. Use to see him at Cedar Creek B.C. all time. He was a faithful member and a friend to our family, especially when my dad was the pastor there! He would come to Fried tomatoes to eat many times and talk to us every time he seen us. We were just talking about him a few weeks ago. I'm sure he is in heaven with Jesus and his sweet wife now. He spoke of them two all the time! ❤️🙏 for the family. Melba Calhoun Bowie

“ *Mr. & Mrs. Neese was my next door neighbors for 37 years. Great neighbors, and great people. We will miss them both. Mr. Neese once told me that I was the best neighbor that he ever had. I told him that we seldom visited each other. He said “That’s what I mean, you’re there if I need you, but you’re not always over here.” After thinking about it, I took it as a compliment. Great guy.
