“ My heart aches at the passing of my Uncle Harold. He was a kind, gentle, humble man who dearly loved his family. I treasure my memories of times spent on the farm with Granddaddy and Grannie Robinson, and my Uncle Harold. There were those special Sundays when all the aunts, uncles, and cousins all were there and Uncle Harold would crank up the old tractor and haul up a big flat bed trailer up under the great big old shade trees. It would soon be covered and loaded up with the best home cooking and there were always lots of hugs and kisses from everybody! I'm so thankful to know that we will all be spending eternity together where there will be no more sadness, sickness, loneliness, or fear. I love you and miss you.
