“ To the family of Peanut Turner:

Peanut's mother was my Sunday School teacher at McIntosh Baptist Church in the early '50's. She was a very sweet lady. I learned a lot from her.

I grew up on Farmer Street near the Averys. Virginia and Billy were close friends. Peanut was about 4 years older than I was and had a car. When you are 16 and know someone with a car who is 20, he is suddenly your friend. When he visited Virginia, Billy and I would hang out with them until they left, much quicker than Billy and I desired, I imagine.

Peanut had a good sense of humor, and was always the kind of fellow people liked. I left Newnan, I guess, about the time Peanut got out of service.

I have fond memories of the years I knew him. My desire is that the Lord will comfort each of you in your grief as only He can.

“ I sorry to hear about Uncle Peanut . He was always fun to be around. I remember him grabbing a bumblebee with his hand. He taught me that the ones with a white dot on its head couldn't sting you.
