“ I have known Mrs. Duncan for 45 years and she has been my Mother-in-Law for over 41 years. I have never known a finer person; not enough adjectives to describe her. She treated me, Marsha, and Terry the same as her own children....with no exceptions. No doubt she loved us just as much. We all miss her very much, but, will never forget her. We have many, many wonderful memories. Thanks to Fayette-Piedmont Hospital for doing all they could for her the last week of her life.

“ To Marsha and the whole Duncan Family, When I kept missing Miss Hazel at Walmart, I realized that she was in the hospital. Our whole family loved Miss Hazel so dearly. My dad is Rev. Richard Fullerton and Carol is my mom. They used to pastor out at Andrew's Chapel and became very close to Hazel's whole family. My 21 year old daughter, Amanda, died 14 months ago and just this past Tuesday welcomed Miss Hazel into Heaven. The joy and praises that they experienced we will know when we get there, too. You are all in our prayers and we love you very much. Remember, God is Love. Judy Miller

“ To Mrs. Hazel's Family, I was so saddened to read of her passing. When I moved to Newnan, Mrs. Hazel was my first friend. The many trips to WalMart were the highlight of my day because of her sweet smile and gentle manner. She always had an encouraging word for me. I am happy to know she is singing in the Big Choir in Heaven and that someday I will be blessed by her beautiful smile once again. Your are all in my prayers in this time of sorrow - she will sure be missed!

“ To the children and grandchildren of "Miss" Hazel. We loved her dearly and we are grieved to hear of her passing. She was a true soldier of the cross. She fought a good fight to the end. We have known " Miss" Hazel since the late 60's when we pastored New Lebanon Baptist Church but have grown closer to her as we go in and out at WalMart. She was always wearing a smile even then wecould tell she could hardly stand up. We know she is totally healed now and enjoying every minute of her great reunion in Heaven. Sorry we cannot be there today but we are lifting the family up in prayer. May God bless you.

“ Aunt Hazel was always one of my favorites! I always looked forward to seeing her at Walmart. With as many health problems that she had over the years, she was always concerned for everybody else. I never saw her when she didn't have a positive attitude and a smile on her face. Her faith always shined through. There's no doubt in my mind that she is now in the presence of Jesus! What a smile she must have on her face now! She was a blessing to me and I will miss her very much. I love you Aunt Hazel! I'll see ya later! David
