“ Martha, I will always remember the day I met your sweet father at his tomato stand and thinking, "What a friendly sweet soul he is". I know how you and your family are feeling right now and how much you will miss him. By celebrating his life of love for his family and his remarkable work ethic, it will bring you comfort and strength. I am privileged to have made his acquaintance and to enjoy the fruits of his labor, those delicious tomatoes. You and your family will be in our prayers. Much love and sympathy. Janet and Julian
