

H. Irving Jackson, Jr.

January 18, 1940 - January 8, 2025

Henry Irving Jackson, Jr. "Irving, Jr." passed away peacefully on January 8, 2025 at Piedmont Fayette Hospital in Fayetteville, Georgia.

Mr. Jackson was born on January 18, 1940 in Grantville, Georgia to Corrie Mae Pitts Jackson, and Henry Irving Jackson, Sr. His parents moved to Newnan shortly after his birth.

Mr. Jackson was a graduate of Western High School, and also received an Associate Degree from West Georgia Technical College, both of Newnan. Mr. Jackson served in the Army National Guard, and worked at Dobbins Air Reserve Base in Marietta, Georgia. Mr. Jackson was of the Methodist faith. He was employed by Douglas Aluminum Foundry of Newnan, initially in sales, and then became their CFO/CEO.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Jackson was preceded in death by his wife, Susan Addy Upshaw Jackson, and a brother, Benjamin Horace Jackson. He is survived by a step-son, Alan Upshaw, a brother, Dann Jackson, a niece Shannon Jackson Hambridge, and numerous cousins, who all loved him, and his special, caring and outgoing personality.

Private graveside services were held for Mr. Jackson on January 13, 2025 at Oak Hill Cemetery in Newnan.

The family of Mr. Jackson would like to express their gratitude to the administration and staff of Fairburn Healthcare, and McKoon Funeral Home for the compassionate care that he received at both places.
