“ Only knew Wayne casually from the gym but he was always a heck of a nice guy.

“ I will always appreciate Wayne and his willingness to help. He spent an afternoon helping prep our floor to lay new flooring. Neither of us really knew what to do, but he worked hard to get the job done. Thank you Wayne for being such a good friend. I am glad we met in the Amen Group a few years ago. What a blessing...

My condolences to his family. He has left an empty place here on earth but has filled his place in Heaven. We will meet again, and I am looking forward to that day.

“ Major Holwick was such a blessing to work with at Troup High School. He was always positive and smiling - lifting those around him came natural for him. But he was more than that to my family. He was instrumental in my oldest son being where he is today. DJ Dougherty had Major for 4 years in JROTC. So when DJ graduated and joined the Marines he came out of boot camp at a higher rank having been in the JROTC program 4 years. After DJ did his time in the Marines he got out and went to college. At some point he decided he wanted to get into the Army Warrant Officer program and be a military pilot. Of course, Major was right there when DJ called on him for a recommendation. Major wrote the most wonderful recommendation letter (I still have a copy on my computer) and, I am proud to say, DJ is now an Army Warrant Officer flying jets right seat in Japan. Major will always hold a special place in our hearts. Prayers for your entire family.

“ I cannot believe I have just read an Obituary for Wayne Holwick. I remember going to the Holwick house to tell them the news that Uncle Joe and I would be parents again in Sept. Wayne overheard and said, "It's gonna be born on my birthday!!" You guessed it, on Sept 14th, 1977 (Wayne's 17th birthday) our Jason was born. If any other family members asked how old Wayne was, I could tell them:) Our family will never be the same!!
