“ The thing I remember most about Aunt Hilda was that she always had a smile on her face. I'll never forget going to Bigma's and playing with all our cousins and sometimes we would go to Aunt Hilda 's and uncle Ted's afterwards and have such a fun time So to all of you and Uncle Ted , my deepest sympathy and lots of Love in this time of grief. We will always remember her fondly , with a smile.

“ I will never forget going to Aunt Hilda's and Uncle Ted's. She made it so much fun she would let us pull a mattress off the bed put it in the family room and she would do cart wheels with us, and the time I climb a tree with Debbie never climbing a tree got stuck but Aunt Hilda came to rescue me by talking me down. So many fun times I will always treasure. Our prayers are with you sweet family, love you all.
