

Horace Edward Clay

September 28, 1940 - March 16, 2014

Mr. Horace Edward Clay of Sharpsburg passed away on March 16, 2014. Edward was a guy that wore many hats – depending on what needed to be done. To the St. Joe Paper Company he was the go to guy for anything that needed repair. His intrinsic mechanical skills were largely self-taught. His greatest education was working in the real world; employing his God-given natural talents. There was also an artistic side to this unique man. He enjoyed square dancing with his beloved Maxine. In the quiet times he enjoyed expressing himself through art or picking up his guitar and singing. He had a natural bond with his animals. He was the quintessential quiet man of few words, but never failed to step forward if there was a job to do. He was a quiet but fiercely loyal father, brother and husband. He was born September 28, 1940 to the late Horace Ace and Doris Zelner Page Clay. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his siblings Carolyn Marie Fazio, Rebecca Arline Clay and Myrtie Juanita Clay. He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Maxine Sprayberry Clay; his children Christina Danielle Clay and Edward William Clay. His surviving siblings are Ronnie Eli Clay and Robert William Clay. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street where the family will receive friends on Tuesday evening between 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM. The funeral service will be on Wednesday, March 19, 2014 at 2:00 PM in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Ken Adams and Reverend Mike Sprayberry officiating. Interment will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Online condolences may be expressed at www.m
