

Howard Duncan

November 19, 1925 - April 3, 2007

Howard Eugene Duncan a native of Memphis, TN, 81, died on April 3, 2007. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Norton Duncan. He is survived by his two daughters, Jenny Duncan of Richmond, VA; and Vicki Warren and son-in-law Larry Warren of Sharpsburg, GA; two grandsons, Forrest and Patrick Warren; his sister Mary Jo Willcox of Memphis, TN, and three brothers, Dr. James T. Duncan of Memphis, TN, Dr. William Lloyd Duncan of Martin, TN, and Dr. Donald Lee Duncan of Texarkana, AR. Howard, a World War II veteran, began his career in the Army-Air Force branch of the military and continued his passion for airplanes with Delta Airlines where he retired as a senior supervisor after 42 years of service. Following his retirement, he committed much time spear-heading the restoration of a DC 3 airplane that is now part of Delta's Air Transport Heritage Museum and was honored by the National Trust. He was a member of Southwest Christian Church and an active volunteer. Howard's community interests are reflected by his involvement with the Kiwanis's Club and service at Peachtree Regional Hospital.

In lieu of flowers, donations made be made in his memory to Angel House at the Newnan Coweta Children's Shelter, P.O. Box 657 Newnan, GA 30264.

The family will receive friends at McKoon Funeral Home, on Friday, April 6, 2007 from 5-7 PM. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, April 7, 2007 at 10 AM in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel.
