“ To The Robert "Duke" Alkire Family, I share a recent memory of this your beloved father, grandfather and great-grandfather. While at Azalea Park he reconnected my Mother Ann Stevens to a Yankeetown kid, Dan Price, she knew when I was a kid as well. You see, our 3rd grade teacher at Yankeetown School was the one and only, Mrs Joy Alkire, Duke's mother. With Mrs Joy Alkire's love of music and her incredible talent, we were introduced to her world of gifts!! She inspired me to become a musician in high school and march with that band. I am so very grateful for Duke's reaching out to my mother and Dan Price and reminding this Faithful Yankeetown Kid just how precious life is. This morning when I called Mother with the news of Duke's passing she had already signed up for the bus ride to attend his FL memorial service at Scott OK Baptist Church on 3/6/17. Her words to me were, "Duke use to play an instrument on Sundays at Azalea Park and isn't it truly a small world that he reconnected us Yankeetown folks" after all the years. May you as Alkire family members just know how grateful we are for what his kind and generous gesture meant over the miles, over the years for memories made, cherished so very much. I am with you in spirit. May God's Peace be in your aching hearts and Blessings and Prayers to You All The Alkires. Gail Stevens from Portland, OR. I will mail a check to Scott Lake Baptist Church in Duke's memory.

“ I worked with Duke the 37 years he was at Owens Illinois Glass Co. Duke was quite a gentleman, First a very "Godly" man, A good athlete. a better Umpire, some kind of Outstanding Bowler, and a friend to anyone who took the time to know him and his lovely wife, He will be surely missed, but never forgotten, Duke was one find man and loved our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
Rest in Peace,

Your Friend,

Glynn Shriver

“Duke” Alkire was always somebody special. It is with fond memories that I recall my first time bowling at Junction Lanes in Newnan. That was nine years ago when I began bowling. I had arrived for what was called Wednesday Fun Bowling. I did not know a sole, but as soon as I entered the building Duke came up to me and introduced himself. Then he asked me to join him on the lanes. I told Duke that I was just beginning and was not very good. He said that it did not matter how good I bowled – just come on and have fun. And so it went. Duke was such a good bowler that I was in awe and through the years truly valued his friendship.
