Warrean Hunter Scarbrough, age 14, passed away Sunday, November 20, 2016. He was born August 16, 2002 in Newnan GA to Todd and Joni Scarbrough.

Hunter was a tribute to his name, an amazing example of athleticism, keenly intelligent, a natural born leader to many, both young and old and most importantly was a messenger of Christ. His big smile, kindness, and wit made him a loyal friend to everyone he met.

Hunter is preceded in death by grandfather Warrean Scarbrough. Along with his parents Hunter is survived by sister Hannah Scarbrough; grandparents, Brenda Harper and Bill Harper, Randy Owens and Janie Owens along with loving, aunts, uncles and cousins. He is also survived by his beloved family dogs Woody and River.

The funeral service is Saturday, November 26, 2016 at 11 AM at the Hwy 16 campus of Crossroads Church, 3260 GA-16, Sharpsburg, GA with Rob Brass and Daryle Smith officiating. Burial will follow the service at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Newnan.

“ I didn't meet Hunter till Break Into Buisness happened and he was on my team. He is always so happy and a huge leader. I look up to him because I know he was a grade above me and he was going to my future middle school. During camp we made magnets and "Happy Bagz" which were made out of recycled billboard. He is so nice and we became friends fast because of the activities and things we did as a team at camp. Hunter helped me know what middle school would be like and it helped a lot. Hunter is the most fun, loyal, smart, and kind person I know. I miss him a lot, but I know he is in a better place now!

“ Hunter was a very sweet! He never argued with anyone and he was a good boyfriend to me! I love him and miss him very much! I love you babe!

“ The first time I met Hunter was at skyzone and I was so excited to meet him because I've heard so many good things about him and the minute I saw him I was like wow that kid is tall and and said wow you're short haha. We became friends instantly and we played basketball together the rest of the day

“ Hunter was was of my bestfriends. We did all kinds of things together. We played football, baseball, fished, and many other things with each other. I will never forget the smile he always had on his face. He wanted to make sure others were happy even if that meant he had to give up something. He is the true meaning of self-LESS. He wanted the best from all of his teammates. He brought encouragement to our teams. The one thing about high school I was looking forward to was being able to see my favorite giant everyday in school, on the field, or by sophomore year...behind the wheel. I could not wait to see what this kid had coming up in his future. I know that through everything, he is standing next to me in spirit. Hunterman, I will never forget how much you treated me like a brother. I am going to miss having our birthdays two days apart and being able to celebrate life with our friends. Now, I get to celebrate your life on the 20th of every month. I remember hearing about this when I was on a retreat in Tennessee. When I got home, me and Yates Kelleher stayed up until 2 or 3 in the morning to make sure everyone is okay. We want you back, nothing more we can say, we can't wait until this is over and it all goes away. Ephesians 3:17. I love you Hunterman.

“ Hunter was my best friend before I moved. He would light up my day with his jokes and kind spirit. He was so accepting me and helped me through my hardest days. I miss you Hunterman. Wish I could have been there in your last days. I can still hear your laugh... I love you...

“ I was always impressed with Hunterman. Every memory I have of Hunter is the way he was constantly helping others. I will never forget when the Scarbrough's would cook breakfast at the breakfast with Santa events. Hunter was constantly going around making sure that everyone had what they needed, and that the children were having a great time. Hunterman will forever be in our thoughts and our prayers. “ For Trish:

I felt like I knew him because of the many stories you shared of him & Hannah! You understand I know this feeling all too well. There are no words yet people feel they must say something. For the time at hand, cling to the fact that God is not capable of making a mistake. I cannot explain it nor do I understand it but knowing deep within your soul it is not possible will allow peace to enter into the dismal state. It's one moment at a time until you can muster 1 minute at a time. Put one foot in front of the next and keep going. Your are loved, appreciated and prayed for. “ Brenda and family, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I know words cannot convey the feelings of love and sorrow that I have for you now, but you will continue to be in my prayers.

May God our Father wrap you in his loving arms and give you peace in the coming days. I pray your precious memories of Hunter that you carry in your heart will help you with your healing.
