

Inez Taylor Glover

November 24, 1920 - January 2, 2017

Inez Taylor Glover, 96, died peacefully in her home in Newnan, Georgia on Monday, January 2, 2017. Mrs. Glover was born in Greensboro, Georgia on November 24, 1920 and was the daughter of Landrum Sanford Taylor and Ethel May McMichael.

She was one of five children. Her brothers Lamar "Acie" Taylor and Jack Taylor preceded her in death, and she is survived by her sisters Ginny Taylor Clevenger of Calabash, NC and Betty Taylor Stovall of Atlanta. Inez married Clifford Banks Glover, Jr. from Newnan, Georgia on April 28, 1945, and together they had three sons. Gandy Glover lived in Newnan and died on April 24, 2011, and Taylor Glover and Peter Glover both live in Atlanta. Mrs. Glover's husband Clifford Glover died on June 18, 2007.

Mrs. Glover graduated from Valdosta State University and earned a 6-year teaching degree from West Georgia College. After their wedding, Inez and Cliff Glover's first home was in Deland Florida, where Cliff was a Lieutenant in the Navy. After World War II ended, the Glovers returned to Newnan, and Inez continued her career as a schoolteacher at Elm Street Elementary School, where she taught for 22 years. She was a champion of education and was honored with a membership in Delta Kappa Gamma, an international professional honor society of key women educators. "Miss Inez" was beloved by her former students, many of whom she kept contact with in Newnan. Inez was an honorary member of Newnan Reading Circle, which was founded in 1909. She was also a long-time supporter of "Feeding our Friends" ministry at Central Baptist Church, where she enjoyed delivering meals to and visiting with those in need. She was also a member of the Bridge Club, Lunch Bunch and Missionary Circle. Throughout her life, Miss Inez was blessed to have a large circle of wonderful friends.

Survivors include her sons S. Taylor Glover (Shearon) and Peter L. Glover (Helen), four grandchildren Frank Glover (Nancy), Chris Glover (Melissa), Becky Glover and Preston Glover, and three great-grandchildren Meredith, Ryan, and Greer.

Family will receive visitors at Central Baptist Church in Newnan from 12:30PM – 2:00PM on Thursday, January 5. A memorial service will follow at 2:00PM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice or Central Baptist Church of Newnan, 14 West Broad Street, Newnan GA 30263. The “Feeding Our Friends” ministry at Central Baptist was a particular favorite. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com. McKoon Funeral Home 770-253-4580.

“ *Peter, Taylor and Family,
As we were raising James and Nicholas in the 1980's, our yards backed up to your Mom and Dad. Our boys always referred to them as "Miss" Inez and Cousin Cliff, because they always made them feel like family. Looking back, we have such fond memories of your parents playing and interacting with our boys. They helped make their childhood special growing up in the neighborhood, and we felt safer knowing that they loved and cared for them as well. Your parents will forever be in our hearts and memories, and we are grateful to God for the privilege of knowing them. We share your loss.*

“ Just pull this up on my computer about Ms. Inez, am so sorry to hear about her death. She was a teacher to my son Gary at Elm Street School and was a sweet teacher. Gary had some health issues and Ms. Inez went out of her way showing her kindness. I have always thought of her with sweet memories over the years. My thoughts and prayers are with all of the Glover family. I'm glad you were able to enjoy her with a long life. May God comfort you and give you peace during this time. Love, Syble Storey

“ I just happened to go to my computer and read the Newnan paper and saw the notice about the passing of Inez, such a good friend of years ago, and I want to let the family know that I send condolences. She was always a joy with good humor and compassion for others. I am sure that El, Sid, and Powell join me in remembering all of you in your loss.

“ Miss Inez had such an amazing life and was loved by so many, especially me. I am not sure I would have made it out of 5th grade without her guidance and love for such a mischievous little girl. She kept me focused on what was important and her balance of a firm hand mixed with love and understanding inspired my future as a teacher in my adult life. As she got older and I would visit with her, she kept her uncanny quick wit and a beautiful laugh that always made you smile. I know Cliff will be glad to see you in heaven but I will miss you , but you will always be my best teacher and my friend. Peter you had an amazing mother that inspired your sense of humor! My thoughts and prayers are with you.
