“ Think back to 1958, Y'all were living in Welcome, Ga. I was your Life & Casualty Insurance Agent. I fondly remember your Mom, Ruth, you, Deloris and little Tony. The accidental burning of Tony, subsequent hospitilation and long recovery, Your GrandMa was quite a character, I always loved to hear her speak of "the old Days" Your Dad & I raised some pigs in partnership, the pigs probably cost each of us twice what we'd have paid in the grocery. I have been gone from the Newnan area for some 46 years. My deepest sympathy for the family . Remember, you'll all meet again one day. ,Kindest regards, Paul (Wendell) Elkins

“ Delores, I was so sorry to read about your father. I remember your parents very well. You will have to think back a long time to Sargent to remember me. You, Janeth and I had some fun times back, gee, many, many years ago. Your parents always were so good to us when we hung out together. We lost Janeth last April. Her children are still here in Carrollton area. Our prayers are with you and your family. Jean Shumake Nichols Holcomb
