“Elaine and Family: So sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs. Irene. She was precious and I will miss seeing her at Brookdale. She always had a smile on her face and was quite comical. She will be missed. Hugs and love to you all.”

“Miss Rene in many ways always made me think of the Queen Mum: her sweet face always wearing a benevolent smile; her calm and dignified bearing; her stylish and classy manner of dress, impeccable grooming with every hair perfectly in its place; her intelligent and fun conversations; and her loveable habit of having an “afternoon toddy” all added up to someone very special. I’ve never known her to be anything less than gracious and genteel, always quick with a smile and to offer a warm, heartfelt hug in greeting. Of course there is a great personal sadness and sense of loss as Danny, Penny, and Elaine lay their mother to rest. But I think we should all be saddened as we witness the passing of an era: the world will be a little less kind and a little less sane as ladies like Miss Rene leave us. She and all the other little Southern ladies like her were the keepers of our heritage and the candles in the window of a world gone mad. She will be sorely missed by all those whose lives she touched. Although she is no longer here among us in the physical sense, her beautiful spirit, strong sense of ethics, her good manners, sweet nature, and sense of humor all live on in her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, and that is – after all – the greatest tribute of all. You fought the good fight, Miss Rene. Rest well.”

“ I was so sorry to see that Miss Irene had passed. I so loved our visits together when I was her home health nurse. She left me with some great memories. She reminded me a lot of my own Grandmother and Great Aunts. I was so lucky to have met her. My sincere condolences to the family.
