“ Sabrina, Sabra & Mike: I saw your Mom's obituary in the local paper. You have my most sincere sympathy. I have such fond memories of your Dad and Mom and you girls when we all attended Dogwood Hills Baptist Church in East Point. My boys join me in sending our love.

“ To: Sabrina, Sabra and Mike, I have lost one of my dearest friends. So sorry for your loss. Am praying that you will feel God's comfort during your time of grief and difficult time. I will carry Iris's memories with me to my grave. We had such fun memories during the past 49 years. Rusty and Iris were the first people we met when we came to East Point in 1963. We remained good friends all through the years. So sorry I am here at my house in Blue Ridge and unable to attend the funeral. Mary Cheves

“ Sabrina and Sabra - our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. We all have such good memories of growing up in East Point and at Dogwood Hills. You all were a big part of that community. So thankful we are assured of where your mom is today. God bless you and may His peace and comfort support you during this difficult time..
