“ Izzy was a dear sweet lady. We sang in the choir at Trinity UMC in Dalton. My mother and her were very good friends, both being born in PA and close in age. My condolences to the family.

“ My deepest sympathies to the family and all who held Izzy dear. Chatsworth First Methodist Church treasured Ms. Izzy. I think of her often whenever the choir sings a praise and worship song that she called “7-11 songs.” When asked what a 7-11 song was, she replied-a song with 7 words that you sing 11 times. I know she is singing in the choir in Heaven. She will be so missed by so, so many.

“ Izzy, as we all new her, was a dear friend. She was a choir member at Trinity, while I was director. We had a great time together. We would disagree on several subjects and agree to disagree. Then we would move on. I wish I new more people like her. Ill miss her.
