“ Hey dad!! We miss you so so so much... I would give anything to hear your voice again. Im sad and miserable without you. Its been a month and a half... and stills feels like yesterday. It was always COD count on dad.. and now I dont have you to even tell you I love you. I will never understand why you were taken from me at such a early age. We are all clueless without you the leader of the family. I hope your in peace and not hurting no more.. One day I will see you again, and that will be the happiest day of my life. I LOVE YOU DAD!!!

“ Theresa I was so sad to hear about Jack, but thankful Margie let me know. As you know, we had a great relationship with Jack when he built our house in Luthersville. He was a kind, considerate and honest man, someone we are all proud to know. I know it will be hard for you and that there will now be this empty space in your heart, but I know he loved you and his family more than anything, and hopefully you can hold on to that. Freyer

“ Dear Theresa & Lindsey & Kevin, We were so shocked to hear about Jack. Even though it's been years since I've seen you guys, I still remember the good times when we got together with Tommy & Ann. Randy works at Warehouse Carpets and worked with Jack many times on carpet for his new homes, which he always said were very well-built homes. Kristin & Matt send their love and sympathy, as do Randy and I. You are in our prayers. Love, Betty

“ Clara & Family. David and I are truly sorry for your loss. We lost a son in 1996, so our hearts go out to you with all our love. We know how you are grieving. To be honest, this grief will never go away. The only thing that makes it better is to know you will see him again one day. Let this be your hope and guidance throughout your life. Be true to yourself and love God. Tell stories about Jack, about things he did and said. This will help ease the pain. Love one another for you never know when you will see them again. We love ya'll. May God bless you. David & Nanette Hayes Refus' Nephew

“ I just want to start with how sorry I am for the pain in everyones heart over losing Jack Webb. I wish their was something I could do to ease the pain in many hearts but I know I cant. Its hard to think that one day everyones day will come. We hope that it will happen later in life but thats not how it works. Im glad to have got to see Jack on Easter at the church, but sad of saying good bye without knowing that would be the last time I would get to talk to him. I just hope for the people who has been lucky to know Jack better then myself, that you remember all the good times you got to be with him and know that he is in a better place watching down over us and waiting to be reunited with us again. This is a hard time for everyone and I hope we can stick together as a family and get though this. We love you Jack. See you again one day. Rest in peace. God bless

“ Me and my uncle were not as close as we should have been, But I loved him very much. Aunt Tharesa and Lindsey I am so sorry for your loss, and I hope we can all get trough this hard time. It just seems like for us younger generation we are starting to lose everyone we love. It is part of life but it is really hard to deal with. If there is anything i can do for u please please let me know. If i can give it I would be honered to help out. Maybe in this time of grief we can use this heart ache to grow closer to the ones we love. Again I am so sorry, I love u all so much

“ The sadness in my heart is unbearable as I have lost, my friend, my brother, one of the most precious things in my life. He was my rock, my hero. I will miss my daily conversations with him so very much. My life is forever changed now and will never be the same. I know that you are now in Heaven, and that some day I will join you Jack, Debra, and Shunda. He will forever be in my heart.

“ Me, my wife, Jack and Thresa did a lot together. We went out to eat a lot and went everywhere on trips and vacations over the years. We had become very close. He was a beloved brother, best friend and pal to me along with my wife. When I lost her in February we grew even closer in my eyes. Didn't a day go by without talking and planning something to do. I am going to truly miss him. I now have two empty places in my heart that just feels broken into. Too lose very two close people this close is terrible and heartbreaking. May him and Debra be watching over us who are still here. May God be with us to help us cope with our grief Tommy Webb
