

Jack G. Bradley

October 9, 1952 - January 10, 2025

Jackson Grady Bradley of Newnan passed away on Friday, January 10, 2025 from an extended illness at Tanner Memorial Hospital in Carrollton, GA, at the age of 72. Jack was born in Newnan on October 9, 1952 to the late James Henry Bradley and Mary Gordon Bradley.

Jack was a proud graduate of Newnan High School from the Class of 1970. It was his dream to earn his pilot's license, which he accomplished at Emory Riddle Aeronautical School. Later, he graduated from the State University of West Georgia with a bachelors of business administration in finance.

Upon retiring from GA Power Company as a boiler turbine operator, he found time to enjoy many interests. Playing bass guitar as a member of a local classic rock band gave him much joy, for he had a knack for music. He also found hunting and fishing an enjoyable hobby that would last a lifetime. Jack was also a certified electrician and found tinkering with many items intriguing. He was always willing and happy to help someone with a project.

He was most proud of his membership as a worshipful master in the Coweta Masonic Lodge #60 and also the Coweta Yaarab Shrine Club. It pleased him to contribute to the many charities they sponsor.

Visitation will be at Saturday, January 18th, 10:30 am and the memorial service will begin at 11:00 am in the Chapel, McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, Newnan, GA with Rev. Chip Gordon officiating.

He is survived by his sisters Sharlon Bradley Cobb (the late Thomas) and Michelle Bennett Lott, nieces Sandra Cobb Bowie, Kallie Olmstead Hall

(Charles), Carly Olmstead, and nephews Michael Bradley Cobb (Nancy Keith), James Binion, III (Deanna Gardner), and many great-nieces and nephews.

“ I went to high school with Jack. I don't remember if we had any classes together or not. I always enjoyed talking and laughing with him. I hadn't seen him since I graduated in 1969. He was a good person and always cheerful. May God comfort the family during these times. May he rest in peace.

A good classmate. A possible legend of a pilot.
