“ A more loving, caring, outgoing person there will never be. Jim Cork was such a wonderful man, full of love for life and humorous stories. He loved his Senior Saint group that he often toted around in the Newnan church of Christ church van to various outings. He wanted everyone to be "involved" and went out of his way to talk to everyone in the group to make them feel a part of the community and to assure them they were special. His bright smile and encouraging comments would light up a room, and he loved his Lord so very much. His Christian example and love will be sorely missed here on earth and at the Newnan church where he was loved, cherished, and respected. I will miss the times we ate together this past summer at the Hannah Brothers Pinewood Studio Cafe for all-you-could-eat fare. Once he learned of the place, he enjoyed fellowshiping with the men of the church as often as he could go there to eat. He will be sorely missed, and our hearts go out to Sylvia and all the other members of the family at this difficult, emotional time. We are sorry for their loss, which is also a loss to the world of a kind, loving soul. We look forward to being together with Jim again in heaven and to hear more stories he loved to tell. May the Lord grant you all peace and comfort, “ Newnan Church of Christ will miss Jim dearly. He was a friend, amazing barbeque creator, and always someone who had a ready smile and a good joke. We know we will see our brother in Christ again one day. We send prayers and love to Sylvia and his entire family. Jim, you are missed but will never be forgotten in our hearts.

“ Jim was always happy to be with friends. He loved playing cards on Friday night with our group. What I will remember most about Jim is his smile. He was always smiling. He loved the church, he loved his family, he loved his church family. He was always available to help. We will miss Jim so very much. God bless and hold his family and friends in His comforting arms.
