“ Lyndie, Please accept my sympathy on the loss of your son. Although I have not seen you in years, I think of you quite often. Every time I pass by Susan's house, I remember all of the times growing up together. See, I even remembered how to spell your name, and I know that always was a problem with all of the different ways people tried to spell it. I am very sorry to hear of the death of your son. I know that you are heartbroken. I hope that you have held to your faith--the faith that we first learned at Concord Baptist Church. It was Susan's influence and the influence of your family that kept me in church, and led me to accepting Christ as my Savior. Thank you for your influence on my life. rhonda

“ When we lose such a special person in our lives, nothing else seems to matter, and time just stops. Please accept our deepest condolences. Words cannot even begin to express our sorrow. We will cherish all the wonderful memories we have of Jamey and he will never be forgotten. Jamey was such an amazing person, he truly had a heart of gold. There wasn't one sigle time that Jamey didn't make us laugh and smile. We are truly blessed to have had him in our lives. Our thoughts and prayers are with you! Miss you RED DOG :)

“ I am Chanda Anderson mom, wonda. I have known Jamey for the past 6 years that he has worked side by side with my son. Every visit I made to see my son, Jamey was always there with a friendly smile and something funny to say. I have grieved his leaving and will truely miss seeing him with my son. Im truely sorry for your loss. Jamey is in Heaven with our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. I do know that he had accepted Jesus as his Savior. Again, I am truely sorry and will miss him.
