“ One by one they pass away - the friends and brothers of our adoption, the companions of our choice. Our deepest and sincere sympathy to the entire Hennahane family. One memory is of spring baseball practice "in the gym" while the snow flew, there was Jim throwing his pitches. Bob and Lucille Northrup

“ Dear Kathy, Some friends, writing you, have said, "Shocked." That says it for me also. Jim was a large, strong figure for the EAHS Class of '54. I flunked a Shakespeare class in college so I compensate by reading him in these advancing years. Here's for Jim: " I shall not look upon his like again." My sympathy to you and family. You and Jim will be in my thoughts and prayers. Tom Bechtel

“ Kathy, Jimmy, Karen and Michael: I am so sorry to hear about your dad. My fondest memories of him are being a HUGE supporter of his children while they attended ISB and sitting around his table in Belgium strumming Jim Croce, Kris Kristofferson and John Denver songs on his guitar while everyone was "full in song!" I often look at my wedding video smiling fondly with Jim and Mary's wishes for me and Macky. I remember looking out the window about 15 minutes before I got married and seeing your mom and dad seated. I was so happy they made that trip on a special day for me. I loved your parents VERY much and all of you!!! Love, Heather
