“ I am sorry to hear about Mr. Horne. He was a client with my father at Fisher Ins. for many years. I admired how he took such care of his son that often, if not always, accompanied him. My prayers are with the family.

“ To the Family of James: I was so shocked to hear of your loss. I did not realize that James had been sick. After my mother, Johnnie Horne O'Brien died, I lost contact with him. They always kept in touch with each other, and she would tell me when she had talked. We also use to see him in Kroger when I took her grocery shopping. As kids growing up, James would come to see his Grandmother, who was my Great Grandmother, and I remember he, my sister, and I playing the normal childhood games back then. I also remember him entering some kind of contest as a youngster, and he won a TV, which was a big prize back in those days. My thoughts and prayers go out to each of you, and may God comfort you and console you during this time. Mary Elizabeth (O'Brien) Hughie

“ Dear Horne family, Our thoughts and prayers continue to go out to each of you. James was a treasured friend to us at Elim. We shared meals, worship, choir, and good fellowship together with your Dad and Ed. Our Just Older Youth group was enhanced by his laughter & friendly competition in Bingo and especially with his great crockpot dishes. James was a good man who loved his Lord and his friends. Rest well, our good friend. We will see you "in the sweet by and by."
