*“ To Beth and the family - I can't put into words what I feel. At last, Jimmy is without pain, happy and free, surrounded by those he loved who had gone before him. But how we will miss him. He and Beth were always the first there to offer their love and support when there was any family illness or heartache. We will miss that serious side, but how I will miss that laugh and how he loved to tease his "Auntie". We love you.

“ Jimmy will be missed by fellow Disciples across the state of Georgia. He always had a smile, a kind word, and an open heart, and oftentimes, a joke, for his friends, new and old. Beth, to you and your family, we are grateful you shared him with us, and grateful you two extended your warmth and grace together. You are in our prayers, and we send our love to you and your family. Archie and Lainie Jenkins.

“ I know I speak for all the "first" cousins when I say that our crazy, fun loving, joke telling, always laughing and having a good time cousin will be missed and irreplaceable in our family. Jimmy was one of the most generous and kind hearted friend and family member anyone could possibly have. He was always ready to meet at Sprayberry's any time the family could get together there for good food and a fun visit. Sprayberry's won't be the same for any of us ever. Jimmy loved his family - not only his close knit family of Beth, Billy, Amy and Matt and Megan and Caroline, but his extended family - all of the aunts, uncles and cousins and all their children - Jimmy was always ready to laugh and remember old times. He was a caretaker and wanted to help anyone in need and would do anything he could to help others. We are going to miss Jimmy so much but we are glad he is having the best time in Heaven - and no longer in any kind of pain. Until we are all together again, we will always love and miss our Jimmy. Love to the family. Cindy McGraw Williams and Ken Williams, Brad & Christy Williams and the children; Andrea & Ryan Hendrix and their children.
