“ Jim and I met at the Airbase Georgia (Dixie Wing) when he first came to the hangar regarding a part for one of his cars. It was a great joy to get to know him, and eventually he became an important volunteer in the machine shop at the Wing. He had such a great sense of humor, always smiling and greeting folks with a warm welcome. I will greatly miss him. My sincerest condolences to Jackie and the family.

“ While thinking of what to say about Jim it occurred to me how simple it is. What a Great Guy! Extremely intelligent, generous, he was unassuming and a truly nice man.

Jim and I shared so many interests they're too numerous to list here. Suffice to say I will cherish the times we spent together.

What a Great Guy. I miss my Friend.

Godspeed Jim

“ I, after basic training, got sent to Pope AFB, NC. Was temporarily housed in a barracks which was not the barracks for my unit. I'm walking down the hallway one evening, this guy's door was open, in the days before AC. I looked in and saw a poster advertising the 12 Hours of Sebring auto race. So I stuck my head in and started talking to this guy. Turned out it was Jim. We became fast friends, eventually roommates. Stayed in touch since 1967, when he left the military.

Over the years and decades I visited him and he visited me. We talked several times per year.

It's hard to accept that someone you've known for 53 years is gone. He will be missed tremendously.

RIP my friend
