“ Just heard about Dr Kornder passing. So sorry for your loss. He was so very special he had a great sense of humor. I used to bring my pets to him at Edgewood. He was always in it for the love of it. Never greedy. He will be greatly missed by many.

“ I was riding out by Dr. K's home today and noticed a for sale sign. Thinking that this must have happened I googled him when I got home. Dr. K was a great doctor to my animals and a most gracious man. He will be greatly missed. Please let Marilyn Curtis know that I have left this message. Lynn Finney and John Hancock

“ It is a year that Dr. K died. I only found out today. I happened to out today and I noticed that his home is up for sale. I feared this is what happened. So I googled his name and I got his obituary. Please tell Marilyn that I only found out today or we would have been at his funeral. He was a very good man. He treated all of my animals quite well. He will be missed by many of us.

“ My friend Jimmy the saxophone. The first time I met you I got this energy transfer that ran through my body! You just can't get enough of you two. Wow! Marilyn is probably going to cry. One day I gave you a hug and I asked if it was ok. You looked at me with that smile and you said yes. As you were sitting you reached up and gently grabbed my arms and said thank you. I said no, I thank you. The energy that was transferred was off the charts. We had a lot of fun, laughs (all of us). You asked me if I believed in spirits and I said yes and we had a discussion about them. Well I have a question for you, you wouldn't know anything about a huge airship flying around the night sky as far away as the stars making a sound of a saxophone? Thank you my friend. I miss you!

“ Eric and Marilyn,
You have had the difficult but precious job of caring for Jim these last few years. You have done everything that you could for him. I pray that you feel the love, peace and comfort that can come only from our Lord and Savior during a time like this. I am sorry I am out of town this weekend and will not be able to attend the services. Blessings, Susan Goodson (Alzheimer’s Support Group)

“ Dr. Kornder was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. He loved and celebrated life. I remember him being on stage playing his "horn" at the Power Crossroad festivals getting down with it! He was so good to our pets, and he would talk to me about scripture out of the Bible as he was treating them. We were so distraught over one of our dogs that started suffering, he came to our house at 9:30 at night to put him down and comfort us. RIP Dr. Kornder, fly with the angels, you will be missed tremendously <3

“ My condolences to your family. I knew James from years ago from Newnan School of Dance. My daughter had been taking classes there and I got inspired to take some classes too. I was in adult ballet and tap with James and he was such an inspiration! Prayers for your family. He was such a nice man!
