“ I was so shocked to hear of Jim's death. I think of the fun we had as cousins when we were young and would visit in Rapid. Getting up early and catching some breakfast, going for hikes. He was a great cousin, and even though I have not seen him in ages, I will still miss and think of him and the fun times we had. My condolence's to the family and their loss in a son, brother, husband,father, and friend.

“ Sue and crew. I am so sorry for you, Sue. I am also sorry that i don't know your children better. in spite of allowing distance to keep us apart, Jim has a special place in my heart. The emotional bond that we shared was timeless and i am still reconciling that he is gone. He will always be a part of my past. I don't travel well these days, but If you or any of your children should ever travel out this way I would love to see you, and I would also love to regale the next generation with "Jim Stories" that they may be completely unaware of.

“ Sue, Jace, Treavor, Chalin, Our earnest prayers and support will always be with you all in the days to come. Words cannot express the mutually felt shock and sorrow to Jim's departure from us. The Love that we felt and shared with our brother has always been a landmark. This will never change. From the time we were young brothers growing up in Dark Canyon until the night before he left us all, he was always free with his encouragement, his love, his humor and his God given wisdom. He always spoke very highly of you, Sue, and loved to expound on his pride in His children. Some words were spoken that I think of when I remember all that Jim was to us and they are as follows: He was Cheerful in all weathers, He Never shirked a task, Spenid behavior. Moving forward without His physical presence will be difficult to say the least but we will always carry proudly, the mark that he has made upon us. Remember always, that our deepest love is with you. Kevin & Karen

“ The Hoff family sends their condolences to all of the Lockhart family. Jim was very special to us, as were other members of the Lockhart family. In 1980, when we were getting ready to open our business, which was to become an International Deli, in Rapid City...we struggled to find a name for the business. Jim, who was working with us to get set up, came up with the name we were searching for and so 'The Missing Link' was born. We are not sure that we ever properly thanked Jim, but we would like his family to know how much we appreciated him. Dick, Vera, Greg, Julie and all of the Hoff family.

“ Dear Sue & family, Even though it was over 30 years ago when I worked for Jim, it seems like a very short time ago. He left quite an impression on me, and I have never forgotten how good a person he was. Especially that time he slid off the roof of a house and was right back at work in a few minutes. (That would have done alot of people in right there)! We are fortunate to have known him, and I know he'll be waiting for us. Don't worry, he's up there having a beer and exchanging stories with a rowdy bunch of Petersons (Orville/Wayne/Lester/Janet, etc., etc.) right now..... Your cousin, Harry

“ I am deeply sorrowed by Jim's unexpected passing. I have known Jim and had a business as well as friendship relationship since 1985. He was one of the most intelligent people I have ever met -- many times I would have to ask Jim to talk on my level when I needed to know something. He was able to do so. But I most of all admired his Integrity; if Jim told me something, I knew that it was the truth, and that he would do everything in his power to do what he said he would. That quality is almost unheard of today. I will truly miss his sense of humor, his knowledge, and most of all, his friendship.

I hope it is never too late to remember a special person who has slipped away without a friend's knowing. I have stumbled upon the "news" that 12 years ago a beautiful, vibrant, bigger-than-life influence from an early part of my life passed away on my birthday, no less. I worked for Jim when I was finishing high school. He was only a young man, but to me he was a mountain, a sage, an old soul who had very broad shoulders. He had a heart of gold, a brilliant mind, a deep spiritual soul and, as others have said, a kindness, humor and wit that was so full of joy. We lost a very special person from this earth on Nov. 7, 2009 and we are all the richer for having known Jim. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Sue. I'm so glad that you and Jim had 3 children together to carry his legacy forward. My heart is saddened for Jim's premature departure and it is also full of the wonderful memories of what an amazing person he was. I'm sure these years haven't been easy and I hope your memories of Jim carry you and continue to inspire you to live life to the fullest, just as he did. Much love to you.
