

James R. Lowell

July 28, 1935 - October 26, 2010

James "Jim" Russell Lowell, 75, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, October 26, 2010 at his home in Newnan, GA. He was born July 28, 1935 in Ft. Plain, NY to the late Maynard Frederick & Susie O'Day Lowell. He was an engineering graduate of Lowell Technological Institute of Lowell, Ma. In the late 50's he started his family and a career in the financial industry and worked his way up to the Vice President of Installment Loans of the First Agricultural National Bank in Pittsfield, MA. He was active in the Lions club, Masons, Rotary and a barbershop chorus. Then he owned and operated a local private business. Later in his career he worked for the federal SBA Disaster Relief program and the FDIC. He was a member of the Cornerstone United Methodist Church and the Seeker Sunday School Class. Jim was an avid golfer from the age of 5 who enjoyed the game and the spirit of competition with friends on the course. During a 10 year battle with cancer he continued to enjoy his family, golf, traveling and southern gospel music. After a second diagnosis of cancer, he continued to fight the good fight for two years and enjoyed life to its fullest. He will be remembered for the love he gave his family and for his passion of life. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by son, Brian John Lowell; and brothers, John Edward Lowell, Maynard "Fritz" Frederick Lowell.

The funeral service is Friday, October 29, 2010 at 2:00 PM in the Chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, Pastor Joe Watson officiating. The visitation is “ My condolences to the Lowell Family. Jim and my late husband Sam D'Arcangelis grew up together in Fort Plain, and were old friends. I fondly remember Jim as well.

“ I remember all of our swimming games such as dibble-dabble and king of the float. We had good times as lifeguards at Cedar Lake. We played a lot of pitch in the card rooms and had fun at the square dances. We sang songs in the car coming back from Utica and Old Forge. Aunt Sue made the best pancakes for breakfast.

“ My condolences to the Lowell family Although I had not seen Jim for many years ,I have many fond memories of both caddying for and playing golf with Jim. I also enjoyed the times when all of us in the neighborhood would clear the ice at Weston's pond and play hockey all winter. I am sure the sons will attest to that.
