

James Hugh Miller

October 29, 1930 - April 30, 2011

James Hugh Miller, better known to his friends as Jim, passed peacefully at his home Saturday, April 30th following a lengthy illness. A veteran of the United States Air Force he served at Yokota Air Base in Japan during the Korean conflict and enjoyed a successful career with Miller Printing Machinery Co. in Pittsburgh. He retired in 1986 as a Director from Wang Laboratories, Lowell, MA.

Jim was known for his quick wit, love of sports, and his gardening talent. Above all, he was a dedicated and loving husband, father, brother, grandfather, and son.

He will be missed by his wife of 57 years, Janice, daughters Lauri Thompson and Kara Calderara, sister Margaret Miller of Charleroi, PA, sons-in-law, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

“ Dear Kara and family I'm so sorry for your loss. May your love for each other and god comfort you during this difficult time. He is now without any pain and suffering watching and guiding you all from above. Take comfort in the good memories and time spent with him.

“ Dear Kara and family, my deepest sympathy on the loss of your Dad may you find solice knowing he is with the Lord and you now have an angel in heaven watching over your family. He may be gone from sight but never from your memory. You can still talk to him in your prayers he hears you. Please extend my sympathy to your Mom, and the rest of the family. God Bless you all.

“ I am sorry to hear about Jim. May the God of all comfort be with you. Job asked "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again?" Job 14:15 answers "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands, you will have a yearning." Yes God has a longing to bring back to life all those in the memorial tombs. Life in a peaceful earth with no pain or tears. (John 5:28,29;Psalm 37:29; Revelation 21:4) I pray you will find peace and hope in these scriptures.
