“ We have known Tom for 30+ years and he and I enjoyed many years fishing and music together. Tom was a good guy, always in a good mood and loved to laugh. He will surely be missed.

“ I have known Tom most of my life. Him and my brother Allen, known to most as Big Al, (who has also passed) would sit in our living room, or anywhere they were and pick guitars together for hours. I loved listening to them play, laugh and tell stories about their good times and mishaps. I have always loved and looked at Tom like a brother. He will be missed dearly. My heart goes out to his family. Play on guys, play on!!

“ Tommy and I were friends all through school, played sports together, and graduated together. It's been 30+ years since I last saw him, but asked about him and tried to find him for a number of years. Rest In Peace, Tommy. Wayne Terry
