

James Richard Rider

July 11, 1929 - December 3, 2010

Mr. James Richard Rider, age 81, of Sharpsburg, died December 3, 2010 at his residence after a long period of declining health. A native of Lumpkin, County, Georgia, he was born July 11, 1929. He was one of five children born to the marriage of the late Croft Porter Rider and Susie Jane Stone Rider. In addition to his parents, three of his siblings preceded him in death. Mr. Rider moved to Newnan in 1957. In 1967 he established Rider Pest Control, a firm that is still operated by his family. While he was a man who possessed a great work ethic, he also was very much at home in the life of the country gentleman. Many happy hours were spent in gardening, farming his land and tending to the chickens and cows that populated the home place. He took pride in raising the unique Belted Galloway cows for a time. Family was paramount to James and he took advantage of those times to be with his family whether it was time spent on the farm or traveling with them. Never at too great a distance from James there was always one presence, his beloved dog, Pepper. Surviving James is his wife of 65 years, Amelia McGinnis Rider. His children are Martha Ann van Drew, James Porter Rider, and Betty Jo Adkins. There are six grandchildren and six great grandchildren. One brother, Dewey Rider, also survives. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street. The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Monday, December 6 beginning at 12:00 noon. The funeral service will follow at 2:00 PM in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Danny Wilson officiating. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Mr. Rider's memory to either St. Jude Children's Hospital online, donors@stjude.org or to Unity Baptist Church 311 Smokey Road Newnan, Georgia 30263. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com.
