“ Mr. and Mrs. Stitcher have been clients for many years. We had Ms. Bobbie added to our Relay for Life group shirt because they were so dear to us. I just spoke with Mr. Stitcher 2-3 weeks ago when he came by the office. I always enjoyed running into him because he was always so happy and sweet and I felt like Ms. Bobbie was still around. This world has lost a dear, sweet man and he will be missed so much but I know he and Ms. Bobbie will be together again. My prayers go out to his family.

“ James was a part of our family thru many struggles and happiness. Since the death of Bobbie, we have kept in touch. We always looked forward to getting his weekend calls. He was one of those special real southern gentlemen. Always reaching out to help. He will always be in our hearts. We know the Lord needed him to take him out of his pain and now he is there with his wonderful Bobbie walking all over heaven. Love to all his remaining family. With deepest love from Fern and all our Hampton family in Orlando, Florida.

“ Mr. James has attended Raymond Baptist Church for the last year. Each Sunday morning he would be sitting in the back corner greeting each person that came in with "How are you today, young lady/ young man?" He was always "doing good." He donated a picture to the church of the Lord's Supper that he'd had a long time. It hangs in the sanctuary. The church family will miss his faithfulness and that wonderful smile! And there will be an empty spot at the end of the pew where my dad and I sit. May God comfort you with His loving arms. Sylvia B. Yeager
