“ It was an awesome experience to grow up across the street from Dick and Joyce Wheat. They were wonderful, caring neighbors to my entire family. When my Dad, who was suffering from cancer and could no longer walk, Dick Wheat mowed the yard for my parents. The Wheat and Quinn family lived by the motto that neighbors help neighbors. We can rejoice in the fact that Dick and Joyce are now reunited in heaven. May God surround each of you with his loving arms and give you comfort at this time.

“ I worked with Dick's wife Joyce at Chevron for over twenty-five years we rode together to the Marietta office until she retired. They were a special couple to me. Although we did not stay in touch, we did exchange Christmas cards over the years. We were so sorry to learn of his passing and we extend out sympathy to all of the family. We send our love and prayers for God's amazing grace to sustain each of you during the coming days.

“ Such a great man. He would cook the most delicious meals and share them with Camille's co-workers and friends. I use so many of the recipes he shared. Mr. Richard was such a gentle soul with a loving, giving, sharing, caring spirit. One of the greatest.
