“ During our 4th of July boat parade a couple of years ago, we passed what we thought was the last dock with spectators about halfway down the lake. On the dam I saw someone standing next to another individual sitting in a wheelchair. It was far enough away that I couldn't make out who it was, but we led the parade toward these faithful supporters. As we got closer, I remember thinking that the person standing seemed to be Diane, but who was in the wheelchair? Since I first met Bill after moving to Lake Coweta Trail, he had a full head of hair and a fuller beard! This man couldn't be Bill, I thought. It was Bill. He and Diane had returned from MD Anderson and the treatments had taken a toll on him. No hair, no face full of whiskers, and sitting in a wheelchair. I didn't recognize him. But I did recognize something more significant... he was waving and smiling. Pumping his fist in the air, he was sharing his patriotism with us. I remember thinking at that moment, I have zero credible excuses for the low effort I'm tempted to give some days. With all he and Diane were going through at that time, they made the effort to show support for our humble boat parade. I remember the image like it was yesterday... Bill's fist in the air, and Diane supporting him at his side. Great example, great man, great legacy. Thanks Bill.

“ The impact this man had on me cannot be measured. I have always been called a pessimist. Life throws lemons at me constantly. Yet, here was this man who had far worse things in his life than I have in mine, and he was forever gracious, positive, uplifting, and giving. I stood in absolute awe of how any man could be that way while suffering like he did. My wife cared for her brother as he died, for 7 years; he had no one else. Then she cared for her invalid mother for 10 years, because she had no one else. I know what it's like to know an angel. And I am sure that Bill's loving "Di" is just that kind of angel. I only met Bill once, last year, as I traveled through Georgia. But he made a lifelong impression on me. RIP Niner! Love ya man. Bill "Buckrub" Carmichael

“ We have found joy in Sharron (Abrams) our dear friend regarding your entire family. Please, accept our condolences for your sorrow. Bill became a bigger than life figure for us as we listened to Sharron speak of Bill and your family! Certainly this wonderful man will be missed by all but has also left a legacy that will be remembered by all! 'THERE IS NO DEATH - ONLY A CHANGE OF WORLDS!' Sincerely, David and Michaela

“ Praying for your family. Bill was a great friend in junior high and high school. I last remember seeing him at a Brookwood/Parkview game in 1995 or 96. It was great catching up. Sorry we didn't keep up. May you know God's peace and love in this time.
