“ Marty, Sorry to hear of the passing of your dad. Reading the paper today was the first I knew of it. Although we didn't see each other that much, because we were always in the basement, he was always very nice to me. I also know that he must have been an extremely patient man to have listened to muffled versions of "Gimme Three Steps" and "Freebird" over and over and over and never complained. Mainly though, I know he was a good man because of the son he raised. I know he must have been very proud of you and your family.

“ Mickey and Susan, Ray and I are so sorry about the death of your father. We have to be out of town on Thursday and will not get to see you. Our prayer is that you can find comfort in the fact that your father is not longer suffering but has a new body. May God grant you and your family comfort during this time of sorrow. Love you both, Ray and Gerrie
