The first time we ever met Jamie was on Halloween 2012, he came over to our house with Brian, he was so funny, we knew that day that he would become very special to us. He was always happy and fun to be around. Forever in our hearts. We love you, Jamie
May you all find strength, comfort and peace during this most difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ You were one of my favorite cousins... I feel like you were always around as a baby. You started the nickname "Nina" because its all you could say and it stuck. This is too sad to even take in. I know you are up there with my dad, telling the most awful jokes that Heaven will allow. Y'all better behave yourselves!! We love you ❤️

“ I am so sorry for the lost of such a great person that will be missed by all of y'all! I remember when he was a baby his mom and sister lived with me and the time he had an allergic reaction to eggs scared me and his mom to death.
