

Jane Malvia Muir

October 19, 1938 - November 6, 2010

Jane Malvia Nixon Muir attained that perfect healing for her earthly body on November 6, 2010 as she gently left this world and entered into her eternal home. Jane was born October 19, 1938 in New Jersey and was raised in Newnan by her parents Karl Burns and Mary Glover Nixon. She received her early education in the Newnan City Schools. After graduation from high school she enrolled in LaGrange College where she obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Education. Her Master's Degree in Education was awarded to her by Mercer University. Jane devoted her 30 year career to the field of education and at the time of her retirement she was on the faculty of E. Rivers School. In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by a son Todd Nixon Muir. She is survived by her husband Harold Worgan Muir, Jr. of Suwanee. Her children are Harold Worgan Muir III of Athens and Andrew Nixon Muir of Lawrenceville. Also surviving are her grandchildren Andrew Nicholas Muir, Harold Worgan Muir IV and Taylor Davis Muir. She has one sister, Judy Nixon Rountree of Blue Hill, Maine. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street in Newnan. The funeral service will be on Tuesday, November 9, 2010 at 2:00 PM in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel with Dr. James Collins officiating. The family will receive friends at the funeral home beginning at 1:00 PM. The interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com. 770-253-4580.

“ This condolence is especially for Judy N. Roundtree: I was deeply saddened to see the notice of Jane's death in the paper this morning. I remember Jane with great fondness. The loss of your dear sister is a terrible blow. I do hope that your many happy memories of her will help you deal with the sadness you now feel. We haven't been in contact for many years, but I do remember you as well with great fondness. Katie Shearer Schane

“ Harold, Trey, Andy, and Elsa, My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. May you always remember the good memories you had together. Jane was always such a sweet, warm person and very kind. She always reminded me of Aunt Mary. I regret I will not be able to attend the funeral or viewing. My deepest condolences,
Holly

“ My son, Brendan, was in Mrs. Muir's second grade class at E. Rivers seventeen years ago. She was a wonderful, dedicated teacher. Early in that year one of the classmates was hit by a car on Auburn Ave and was killed. The compassion and life lesson that Mrs. Muir taught the children in handling such a tragic event was heart warming.

“ Jane was a wonderful lady, neighbor, and friend to our family. She was a perfect example of a fine, cultured, soft spoken, sweet southern belle. She will truly be missed around our circle.
