“ What can we say - it's so quiet in the house without you and you teasing Barry, baking banana bread and oatmeal cookies or instructing me on making my wreaths. I have so many memories of our escapades, shopping trips, ribbon cuttings and events including your favorites of Bunco and Hand, Knee and Foot. I turn around and you're not there. We will meet again my Janet Louise. Until then, hold a space for Barry and I. You know we will raise H.... in Heaven. Love and miss you my friend.

“ Mommom we love you so much and we are going to miss you more than words can say. I will always remember coming over to the house in FL when we were little and playing in the front yard under the big tree, swimming in the summer, playing the organ in the front room we really weren't supposed to be in, our trip to the Grand Canyon, and spending time talking on the phone with you as we got older. It breaks my heart knowing you aren't on the other end of the phone saying "I love you too honey" but it also ease the loss of you knowing that you no longer have to feel pain and that you can finally rest. I love you so much and will cherish every moment I got to have with you ❤️
