Jasen was known for going Big and living life to the fullest. Black diamond ski slopes at full speed, high energy throws during wrestling matches, massive air while pole vaulting, anything that came his way he crushed it. He was always the first to man up and say "watch this", while never second guessing or looking back. He had a contagious laugh, quick wit, and a charming disposition. He was always sure to brighten up your day, and he loved Jesus. His willingness to help others and ability to find the positive in any situation was unrivaled. He will be missed, though always remembered with a smile on his face.

He is survived by his Parents John & Janette Higgins and Alan & Jenny Starr; six siblings, Drew Higgins, Casey Higgins, Paige Higgins, Aubrie Shelton, Alanna Starr and James Starr; nephew Liam Higgins; seven Uncles Rick Higgins, Aaron Scheuneman, James Ernissee, Mike Harris, Tom Harris, Will Harris, Nath Harris; six Aunts Betsy Higgins, Rose Scheuneman, Bethany Higgins, Kristin Harris, Emily Harris, Tiffany Harris; twelve Cousins Ford
