“ May the memories forever dwell within your hearts and be revealed with your smiles when you think of Jay. Even though I haven't seen him since we graduated many years ago I can still remember to this day our conversations, great fun and laughter we shared. May the GRACE of our Lord keep you and your family.

“ Words cannot express how my heart feels. When we met I knew that my friend Angela had found the man made just for her. I can remember vividly as the three of us laughed and it felt as if I had known Jay all my life. My heart hurts as I know that the world lost one of the most genuine souls to walk the earth. Jay, thank you for taking care of my dear friend Angie and loving her with the love she deserved. I will cherish that which I was so privileged to have shared which was the beginning of a most beautiful friendship between you and Angela. My deepest condolences.
