Jean was born February 17, 1929 in Neenah, WI to Grace and Harry Burr. She was preceded in death by her high school sweetheart and loving husband of 65 years, Dr. Richard H. Boehm, as well as their infant daughter, Laura Ann. Jean worked as a receptionist for several years and then focused her time on her children and volunteer work. Her volunteer activities included leadership positions in the Girl Scouts of America, Sandy Springs Welcome Wagon, Cub Scouts, and the PTA.

Jean was a loving and caring wife, mother, and grandmother who enjoyed entertaining and welcoming people into her life and home. She led a full spiritual life, singing in the church choir, teaching Sunday School, and leading the Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church for many years. She loved camping, fishing, and winning family card games.

Jean and her warm heart will be dearly missed, but her memory will continue to touch and uplift the lives of her family and friends.
