“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Jean was more like a sister to me than a cousin. The last time I saw Jean, it was at her son Danny's wedding and she was so very happy. That's how I will remember her. Happy. Love to you all

“ Still hard to believe that Jean, my Godmother is gone. To have beat cancer and then to pass so sudden , is very sad. I will always remember our last conversation and the two hrs we spoke on the phone about morals and values. You will be missed and although we were not able to say a final farewell in person, you were and still are in our hearts and prayers to all the family. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for sacrificing your family, to come and take care of my mom when she was sick. We will never forget the type of person you were and always will be. Rest In Peace today and always....Your Goddaughter Joanne
