“ Dear Bob, I am glad to have known and worked with you. Not having met Jeanette, I can only surmise what a wonderful woman she was based on what I know about you. I know this is a difficult time but also know you are secure in Jeanette's final destination. May God continue to be with you and comfort you. Sincerely, Roger

“ My dear friend So classy so kind with a heart filled with love for her Lord and Savior. I will forever cherish the many conversations she shared about Jesus with me, She never hesitated to pray on site for anyone who asked. Ladies like her are few and far betwee. My prayers will be with the Wylie family whom she loved with all with all her heart.

“ It must be even more difficult to lose your Mom at this time of year, and I hurt for all of you. I hope you take comfort from knowing that she celebrates this Christmas with her Savior and other loved ones gone on before, clothed in a new body that will never again know pain or fatigue or sorrow of any sort. Be glad for her that she is now rejoicing with them while Heaven resounds with Hosannas . . . she truly will be Home for Christmas! God be with each of you as you move forward from your loss ~ Maggie Williams Georgia EPD
