“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Gossett family and share a comforting promise from the Bible. At Revelation 21:3-4 where Jehovah God will very soon wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“Annette, Brittany, Tyler, Nathan, Katelyn, Grady, Anita and family – Jeff was a true blessing from birth throughout his life. He never had harmful word to say about anyone, he was a true blessing from our Father. He is at peace now and is in no more pain. Tyler rest assured you mom will have our help to keep her home warm in the winter and cool in the summer, John and Fred both said they live, just 3-miles away and just smiled thinking about another the tractor to ride! Your whole family is in our prayers, we love you! Cast all your worries to God, He will guide you, Trust Him! It hurts so much but over time, all things are possible, put your faith into the Lord. I love you, Annette! Love, John & Tamara

“ Annette and Family, My deepest regrets go out to you and your sweet family. I loved having Jeff as a boss and as a friend. He was always so caring to his employees so I know he treated you as his family just as wonderful. I hope that you all take comfort in knowing he is in a better place and turn to your faith in this hard time. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Much love, Erin

“ Annette, my deepest regrets go out to you and your family. Jeff was one of few, I was the lucky one to have known him. It didn't matter if I was grumpy in the mornings when he would come in no less than a minute later he would have me laughing and I knew it would be a good day. It always was. Jeff is now in the hands of our almighty father, may peace be upon him. Stay prayed up Annette and the lord will guide you through too.
