“ The joy of the Lord is our strength, and, above all, absolutely nothing can separate us from His love. Sending you love and lifting you in prayers during this time. With each tear, cling to Jesus. With the pit in your stomach and hole in your heart, cling to the Lord. Play and sing praise music even when you don't feel like it or do not want to. Joy, indeed, comes in the morning even when we cannot imagine it. God fulfills His promises, always. Jesus Christ is with you always, especially in the darkness. I pray that the peace of the Holy Spirit be upon you and in you, in the name of Jesus Christ. May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you. May the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace.

*With A very strong hug and shared tears,

“ I didn't know you long but man you made me fall I. Love so fast! I scared the shit out of you lol!! You were afraid to tell me I was crazy and sweet at the same time. I wish things ended better with us I'm sorry I didn't take up the offer a few weeks ago if I would have known it would be the last time to hug you neck that always smelled so good or kiss your lips I would have never said no to you. I love you and I'm missing you hard.

“ Denise, Myra and family I am so very sorry for your loss, Jeremy was such a sweet young man. Knowing that he with his heavenly Father is a great comfort during this sad time. Can't imagine the pain of losing a child and/or grandchild but my heart goes out to all of you. Aunt Alice will be there to welcome him with open arms and a beautiful smile as I'm sure they all will. May God bring you peace and hold you in the palm of his hands.
