“ I may be mistaken, but I believe I went to Elementary school with Bucky, if he attended Hapeville Elementary that is. Not many carry the name "Bucky". I remember being in his class a couple years during elementary school & remember him being a really nice guy back when we were at the age when boys still had cooties, ha. Whether this is the same young man or not, it is always sad to hear of the passing of any young soul. Prayers for the family & friends of this young man. I like to believe that when the Lord brings us home, it only means we have accomplished all he created us to do in this lif May Peace ne with

“ At times like this it is so hard to find the words that express how much we wish we could help make your sorrow and pain go away. We can only imagine everything you are going through. Hold on to each other and we will keep your family in our prayers. If there is anything we can do please don't hesitate to let us know. Sincerely, the Lacina Family
