May 8, 1944 - January 18, 2025

Jim "Wolfman" Wilson May 8, 1944 - January 18, 2025

On January 18, 2025, Jim Wilson, affectionately known as "Wolfman," passed away after a brief battle with CNS Lymphoma, gaining his heavenly reward. Jim was a cherished figure in the Newnan community and beyond and will be deeply missed by family and his many friends. As the proprietor of Wolfman's Mufflers for over 30 years, Jim became a fixture in the local landscape, known for his mechanical expertise, inventive spirit, and warm sense of humor.

A jack-of-all-trades, Jim could fix just about anything, and his creativity extended far beyond the garage. His unique welded muffler sculptures can be found adorning homes and businesses throughout West Georgia, a lasting testament to his artistry and ingenuity.

Jim's rebellious nature emerged early in life. As a teenager, he spent time at a boys' home, where he developed both a lifelong aversion to oatmeal and a profound dedication to the redemptive power of salvation through Jesus Christ. This faith became the cornerstone of his life, and he was deeply devoted to God, his church, and his family.

Beyond his work and faith, Jim had a soft spot for animals, a love for motorcycles, and a special affinity for black Ford trucks.

Jim is survived by his beloved wife of over 30 years, Jenean Wilson; his son, Jeremy (Allison) Wilson of Edgewater, FL; and his daughter, Melanie (Jim) Tomlinson of Newnan, GA. He was the proud grandfather of Courtney (Jonathan) Gunn of Greenbrier, TN; Chloe Tomlinson of Whitesburg, GA; and Kathryn, Cameron, and Caroline Tomlinson of Newnan, GA. Jim was also a great-grandfather to Jackson and Ivey Gunn, whom he adored.

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, January 26, 2025, at 2:00 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home. The family will greet friends one hour prior to the service and immediately following.

Jim's legacy of faith, creativity, and love will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Jim lived 4 houses from me on Graymont Dr. We spent a lot of time together and he practically lived with us. I was very fond of him and his mom, Evelyn. I have a lot of memories of some of the things we did. I did not realize he had passed as we lost contact over the years. My parents, Elvis and Grace Pounders, were like second parents to him. My name is Minnie Lee and Jim was my best friend. My condolences to his family. He was a good person.

“ Praying for family! I met Jim at Welcome Road Baptist. He was ALWAYS smiling and so funny! I missed him and Jenean when they moved and loved every time they came back to visit. I look forward to seeing Jim again in Heaven and I'm thankful, he trusted Jesus for salvation. Jenean, you, Pam and family are in my prayers. Jim was an amazing person to have known ❤️
