“ Dear Larry, Mary Ann and Girls, I was certainly shocked to hear of Joan's passing. We had so hoped she would be with us in October for our class reunion. Joan and I shared many good times when we were younger in CampFire Girls, Sunday School, and school and I can't leave out those spend the night parties. Please accept my deepest sympathy and know that you are in my thoughts and prayers, Julia(JuJu) Hickson

“ I have known Joan and Larry since our early school days which date back to the early 1960's. They both have been wonderful friends and I had the previlidge of rocking all their children from birth. Joan was a wonderful mother, wife to Larry and a great friend through some bad times over the years. In my life, that will never be forgotten. Larry
