I went to high school with John in Warren Mich in our junior and senior years plus our freshman year of college. We both served in the US Army Security Agency then we both worked for the Bell System. Needless to say, we had a lot in common and John was one of my life long friends. I knew John to be a great family man who loved Ellen and his two daughters as well as being a great Christian. John RIP and love to his family. Some day we will be together again. Cal Burley Centennial, CO
