“ I just learned of John Eric Hughes, Jr. passing in 2016. I loved and respected the whole family. I send my deepest sympathy to all. I cried all weekend.

John had a winning spirit. Highly intelligent and seriously determined in his Education and his Golf. I will never watching his unique golf stroke. I watched him fish for Spaish Mackerel offshore in the Gulf of Mexico. I loved him like my own son. May God rest his precious soul. Love to Tammy and Eric. I wish that I could give him back to you.

“ I will never forget John. He was an old soul and his zest for the finer things in life was refreshing. I had not seen him in years, but we messaged on Facebook as recently as November. I am happy that he knew I was so proud of the young man he had become. My thoughts are with his family now; I know how beloved he is. I will never forget John and the pleasure of being his tutor and friend.
